Passing of Cess Amount to the OIDB

664. SHRI SUNDER SINGH BHANDARI: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) the amount of money collected by Government as cess from petroleum industry and passed on to the Oil Industry Development Board; and

(b) whether the Government to re-examine the cess issue?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS (SHRI T.R. BAALU): (a) The net collection of the Government from Cess upto 31.3.1996 was Rs. 25,955 crores approximately and the allocation of Cess to the OIDB upto 31.3.1996 was Rs. 902.40 crores.

(b) As per Section 16 of the Oil Industry Development Act, 1974, the cess is to be credited to the Consolidated Fund of India and the Central Government may, after due appropriation made by the Parliament by law in this behalf, pay to the Board such sums of money out of the proceeds of cess as the Government may consider necessary. As per the Legislative provisions, the cess is to be credited to the Consolidated Fund of India and a part of it may be paid to the Oil Industry Development Board. To the extent, the cess collection exceeds the sums directly paid to OIDB, it becomes a resource for financing Government expenditure in and for extending direct and indirect budgetary support to the Cntral Public Sector Undertakings in Petroleum, Petrochemicals and Fertilizers Sectors. Presently, there is no proposal to re-examine the above provision.
